Title : Ukraine crisis: Who is buying Russian oil and gas?

Summary : Since the Ukraine war, Russia has not been able to send its fossil fuels to the western countries of Europe such as France and Germany. And this is why Russia has turned to new customers: China and India.

However, these new buying opportunities are not without consequences for buyers and sellers: the infrastructure is not operational and although Russia offers attractive prices, transactions are complex. This is partly due to the sanctions of the international banking system.

Title : England out of World Cup after defeat to France in quarter-final

Summary : The World Cup in Qatar is in full swing after the quarter finals of the competition :

France saw off England with a score of 2-1, after 90 minutes of continuous suspense and great actions. Even though English players managed to get back in the game, with a penalty of Harry Kane, French succeeded in scoring a second goal. Kane failing his second penalty was the coup de grâce for this English team.

This week these four will play the semi finals, opposing France and Morocco, Argentina and Croatia. Who will win the World Cup this year ?

Title : France to let migrant rescue ship dock as it criticizes Italy's refusal to help

Summary : France to let migrant rescue ship dock as it criticises Italy's refusal to help:

France opened its harbour in Toulon to a charity operated ship carrying asylum seekers from the Mediterranean sea. France criticized Italy's right government for not helping the ship that was in the Italian sea and that Italy refused to help for two weeks. After that, the relations between Italy and France soured. 1891 people died or disappeared in 2022 while trying to cross the Mediterranean sea.
