Calvin Harris and Ellie Goulding release church version of their hit single 'Miracle' topping the charts for the 8th non-consecutive week

After releasing 'Miracle' which is on pace to become a new iconic anthem of the EDM (Electro Dance Music), it became clear that the unmatched performance of Ellie Goulding on the vocals deserved a slower version. Rather than recording an acoustic version in their studio as many producers would have done, UK based producer Calvin Harris went for the grandest way possible as it was recorded in Priory Church of St. Bartholomew the Great. London's oldest surviving Church enables Goulding's vocals to shine on top of the acoustic reverb provided by the architecture of the church. Once again, both artists show how creative they can be by constantly renewing their vision of the music industry.
